CONTRACTING MADE EASY

At CXC Global we understand why people choose to go contracting - better rates, the freedom to choose where and when you work, and the ability to claim business related expenses. However, with this comes time consuming paperwork, extra accountant's fees, provisional tax and compliance risks, that are not just a hassle, but could result in serious ramifications if not handled correctly.

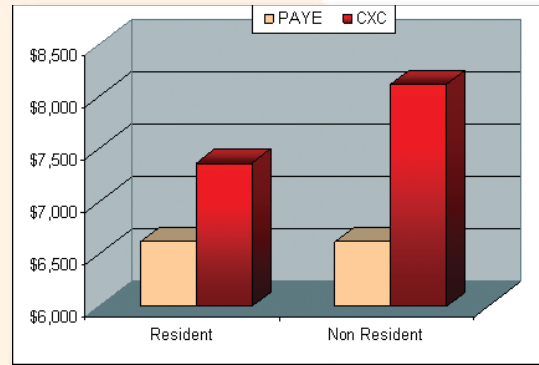

With CXC you can relax knowing your business accounts are being expertly handled and every last detail taken care of. Why spend weekends catching up on paperwork when you could be catching up with friends? The choice is simple. Let CXC give you all the benefits of contracting without the administration or associated risks.

Here's what CXC can do for you

- Fast and simple start to contracting – CXC provide you with a company structure on the same day. No company set up costs. No GST registration or provisional tax payments.
